EMBRACE

Deacon Joseph Collins

Embrace 101 (connecting with Covenant, New Member Orientation)

Connecting at CCC is all about nurturing personal relationships. We believe that establishing a personal relationship with Christ is essential to growing a healthy relationship with each other. This is why we have invested many resources in understanding and capturing what it means to nurture genuine and God-focused relationships.

The membership-related ministries listed below are not only focused on growing healthy relationships with new members, but also on maintaining established relationships with seasoned members.

Deacon Earl Jarrett

Express 301 (Serving at Covenant)

The goal of everything we do at CCC is to "Move People Forward in Faith". While providing a variety of ministries at CCC, we first strive to identify your calling for service and then match your giftedness to operate in that service. We do more than just assign people to where they desire to serve; we also ensure they are prepared to serve by confirming their calling, evaluating their giftedness, and then providing them with the proper training and resources needed.

EXALT

Deacon Ray Wynn

Magnification plays a key role at CCC. More than music, Magnification is the act of inviting the Holy Spirit into our midst and presenting God to the congregation in an enlarged way, so that people may focus on Him. Magnification ministries at CCC give members of all ages an opportunity to participate in meaningful worship. We encourage all members to use their talents, gifts, and abilities to enhance the worship experience and to praise God in a variety of formats.

EQUIP

Deacon Clifton Jackson

Equip 401 (Sharing through Covenant)

CCC's "sharing" impact starts with our friends and family, but also extends outside our local walls. We have a committed history of demonstrating the love of Christ and missions supports through strategic giving, hands-on mission teams, and mission ministry partnerships. We send and support missionaries, at home, abroad, and on extended and short term missions. Our local teams have fed the homeless, partnered with others in outreach, and we're just getting started.

In the coming years, CCC will focus on resourcing churches around the world. We believe that support of the world church is within realistic reach of taking the gospel to every people group. It is our desire to be on the front edge of finishing the "Great Commission".
